

WHAT NEXT FOR SUSTAINABLE PRACTICE?

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

24th November 2021

Welcome to the programme for Arts and Health South West's 2021 Annual Conference, 'What Next for Sustainable Practice'. Please take a look at the schedule below, and check back on our Programme Page regularly for updated copies of this programme.

The conference will be hosted online via Airmeeet, which you can access in a computer browser. To learn more about using this platform, please click here: Airmeeet Attendee Guide. To access the event, you will be sent a link to the email address you used to buy your ticket, on Monday 22nd November.

Key to Session Types:

K	Keynote Key talks and performances that frame the event
O	Oral Presentation(s) Presenters will speak, sometimes with the aid of screen sharing presentations
Pa	Panel Discussion A selection of presenters will discuss a topic
W	Workshop An interactive session
B	Official Business Please remain in the audience for this time, as it is important to have members in attendance to vote on key issues.
...	Self-Directed Time Time to network in the Lounge, connect with others and explore Airmeeet

More Information

About Us

This event is hosted by Arts & Health South West

Booking your ticket

Prices:

- £20 for those who require a concession
- £30 for individuals (sole traders / artists / practitioners)
- £40 for those who are part of a larger organisation

Booking deadline: Midnight, Sunday 21st November 2021.

Book your ticket here:

Event Tickets

Accessibility

Airmeeet has built-in closed captioning, and we will be asking all speakers to verbally self-describe when they begin speaking. If you have any particular access needs that you want to discuss with us, please contact Hannah by emailing info@ahsw.org.uk or by calling / texting/ Whatsapp on 07931 765 911.

Speaker Biographies

Biographies will be available to view within the Airmeeet platform once the event has begun.

SCHEDULE

Time	Session	Type	Location
09:00 - 09:30	Arrival Set up your Airmeet profile and network in the virtual Airmeet Lounge.	...	Lounge
09:30 - 09:45	Welcome Sue Isherwood, Chair of AHSW	K	Main Stage
09:45 - 10:05	KEYNOTE: Why Data Matters - what we can learn from data and how it can inform practice. Martin White, Health and Wellbeing Programme Lead, Office for Health Improvement and Disparities, DHSC.	K
10:05 - 10:15	Reflections on the CHW21 International Conference: learning from sustainable policy and practice around the world. Alex Coulter, Director of AHSW	O
10:15 - 10:30	KEYNOTE: Cleo Lake, Director of Black* Artists on the Move, dance facilitator and social justice activist	K
10:30 - 10:45 BREAK
10:45 - 11:30	PANEL: Sustainable Practice and Social Prescribing in the South West Chaired by Lerato Dunn, Arts Development Officer, Bristol City Council, and AHSW Trustee	Pa	Main Stage
11:30 - 11:35	Member Provocation Kate Steel Jardel – Language and Power	O
11:35 - 12:30	Facilitated table discussions in the Airmeet Lounge Reflecting on the morning's themes	...	Lounge
12:30 - 13:15 LUNCH BREAK

13:15 - 14:00	AHSW's 16th AGM Chaired by Sue Isherwood. Please join us in the audience for this session, as it is important to have members in attendance to vote on key issues.	B	Main Stage
14:00 - 14:10	Introduction to Afternoon Breakout Options	O

14:10 - 15:10 CHOICE OF 3	1 Learning Programme with Sue Isherwood and Julia Puebla Fortier Description TBC	W	Main Stage
	2 Creative Enquiry with Dr Louise Younie and environmental artist Natasha Duggan Description TBC	W	Zoom Session External Link will be Provided
	3 Art + Energy Collective - 'Moths to a Flame' interactive talk Moths to a Flame is a mass-participation art installation for COP26, the UN's climate change conference in Glasgow. The project was designed by The Art and Energy Collective and involved thousands of people all of the UK and further afield in making moths and recording their messages to show world leaders that there is support for action to make the world a better place. During this hands-on talk, Chloe Uden will share some of the journey of this project with you and invite you to have a go yourself.	W	Zoom Session External Link will be Provided

15:10 - 15:30 BREAK

15:30 - 16:30	PANEL: Learning and Workforce Development Chaired by Martin White, Health and Wellbeing Programme Lead, Office for Health Improvement and Disparities, DHSC	Pa	Main Stage
16:30 - 17:30	Continued Discussion on Lounge Tables and opportunity to network with other attendees	...	Lounge

END OF CONFERENCE